A MIGHTY FORTRESS

SCRIPTURE OF THE WEEK

"Seek the Lord and his strength; seek his presence continually"
1 Chronicles 16:11

Mr. Saint Paul Contest

Looking for Nominations for Mr. Saint Paul Contest – 2017-2018

—The 2019 International Trip Group fundraiser will be held Sat, Feb10, at 7pm in Kaeppl Chapel. This contest is open to all male student body members currently enrolled in grades 9-12 and meet eligibility requirements (2.0+ GPA and no "Fs" in any course).

—Contestants will take part in a large group performance, compete in a Wednesday dress competition, a talent portion, and a question and answer period. Non-transferrable prizes include, a 1 week no shave pass, a selection of 3 lunch meals (dates and menu to be determined with the help of the food service director) and a 1 week "First-in-Line-at-Lunch" pass, one Wed. dress-down day.

—There will be no cost to enter, but there will be a few forms to complete and some mandatory rehearsals to attend.

— Please consider attending the show for some fabulous entertainment! The cost is $2 for students (high school or younger) and $3 for adults.

—If you are interested in helping behind the scenes, have any nominations, have questions, or if you're ready to sign up, please speak to Mrs. Brandt (B301). Thank you!

JR HIGH LOCK IN

Sign ups to help with the Jr High Lock in will be available in the Admissions Office beginning Monday, January 15. Up to 3 service hours are available to student helpers. Freshman can sign up to help with set up and clean up. Sign up soon; space is limited.

Scholarship Applications

Charles Lyons Scholarship Applications are now available in Mrs. Marsh's office. Seniors that live in Lafayette County should apply. The application deadline is March 2, 2018.

MATH TEAM

Math Team will compete at the Smith-Cotton Math Contest on Saturday, January 27. See Mr. Toensing this week to sign up.

IMPORTANT!!!

The student handbook states, "All Saint Paul Lutheran High School dorm students will be expected to ride school supplied transportation. Day students are encouraged to ride school supplied transportation. If there is no school transportation provided, the parent permission form will be followed allowing dorm students to attend the activity." Students should also understand that any student that chooses to ride a fan bus to an activity must also return to campus on the fan bus.
