Dr. Jerrode Baker Marsh came to Saint Paul Lutheran High School in the fall of 2015 from Frankfurt, Germany, where she worked for 17 years as a professional musician, performing as a solo pianist, conductor and collaborative artist throughout Europe. She has worked with the Frankfurt Opera, the Austrian-American Mozart Academy and was also the Director of Music at Trinity Lutheran Church in Frankfurt, Germany. She was the Founder and Artistic Director of the Trinity International Concert Choir, a large concert choir that regularly performed large choral works with professional orchestras. At SPLHS, she directs the 60-voice Singing Saints Concert Choir, The Saint

Paul Chamber Choir, the Concert Band, the String Orchestra and the Chamber Choir. She also teaches upper-level Conversational German and a dual-credit college level Music Appreciation course. She holds a B.M. from Portland State University and a Masters and Doctorate in Piano Performance from The University of Texas at Austin.
