Pastor Mehl- Christkindlesmarkt went well, new vendor placement was good, I-70 conference will occur on campus next year during Christkindlesmarkt so plans and some adjustments may need to be made for parking, traffic, etc.

The capital campaign will be focused mainly on updates and improvements to Kruger Dining Hall, and Brust Boys Dorm.

Last Sunday the Asian new year was celebrated with a trip to the Asian market.

New door locks are set to be installed on residential buildings, Biltz will be first to receive these locks followed by dorms and then other buildings. These new locks will allow for controlling access and security from students, people, and times not authorized.

Project Review

Christkindlesmarkt Saints Store: Rhonda Beerman-Everything went well, sold out most t-shirts. On-line Christkindlesmarkt sales were a bit low maybe the market is not conducive for on-line ordering? International t-shirts are now available, new baseball caps are coming, new t-shirts are ordered, and the new convenience fee for cards was accepted well.
